| Central Connect – The Brand   |   |
| Todd Babiak from Brand Tasmania provided an overview of place-based branding, with examples from  |   |
| Tasmania.   |   |
| Our brand is not about our logo, it's our unifying story, it's about what makes Central Connect unique in   | Members to register individually as a           |
| the Central Coast. It should be heartfelt and something that everyone in the Central Coast can connect to.  | partner on website to access Brand              |
| Todd encouraged Members to visit https://www.tasmanian.com.au/ and register as a partner . This will  | Book.   |
| give you access to the Brand Book and other tools and resources.  |   |
| Todd agreed that collecting community voices is the first step in thinking about our brand to develop   |   |
| Central Coast's Community Wellbeing Plan. He has a lot of experience in this and is happy to advise us. He  |   |
| talked about the emphasis being on what is specifically great and Tasmanian about the Central Coast, and  | Community engagement group to                   |
| slowly drawing answers out of people to see what the community wellbeing problems are that we can   | reconsider Community Voice                      |
| solve together. Todd emphasised that we must tell our story and Brand Tasmania will assist by telling it  | questions around connection and                 |
| back to us. He was happy to supply questions to help us develop the narrative.  | consult with Todd.                              |
| Next steps and close  |   |
| Chris thanked everyone for their attendance and input in the meeting. The Backbone Team thanked Chris   |   |
| for chairing the last two meetings and asked for a volunteer for the next meeting (Chris will be away). Kerrie  |   |
